Free entry for children under 12:

Family Sunday and Treasure Hunt for Children

The Ostsächsische Sparkasse Dresden and the OSTRALE Biennale invite you to a big family day at the art exhibition next Sunday (25.8.). In the historical building and the outdoor area of the former tobacco factory f6 (Schandauer Str. 68) there will be a colourful programme for the whole family. For example, the children can access the exhibition with a treasure hunt map and win small prizes. "It is close to our hearts to give children and their families a playful and creative approach to art," says Andreas Rieger, spokesman for the bank. Children up to the age of 12 have free admission! Visitors who pay with their SparkassenCard (debit card) receive a reduction of one euro off the admission price.

Childrens' Program

13:00 / 17:00 – OSTRALE Treasure Hunt

With a "treasure hunt map", children can go on an adventurous journey through the exhibition together with parents, grandparents and siblings, to reveal the unique secrets and magical figures of the OSTRALE. On the way, they meet the golden angel, the wooden dwarf or the living dolls, which playfully introduce them to the world of contemporary art. Of course, the explorers are also rewarded with small prizes afterwards. From 3 years up, in German

13:00 / 17:00: Painting workshop for the whole family in the Event Room

Shapes, lines, dots and more! We listen to exciting stories from the magical world of colours and create our own artwork. In German

All Day: The Little Summer Gallery of Kids (Kleine Sommer-Kinder-Kunstgalerie)

Children's art is its own thing! The results of the OSTRALE children's art project "Kinderblicke kunterbunt - WIR, die Friedrichstädter!" are exhibited in the painting workshop, inspiring the viewers to enjoy art with all the family and become creative together.

Musical event

From 14:00 Dresden musician Jan Heinke will play a „sonic skylines timescapes live soundtrack“ with his project „Chrononaut“, in the Event Room (2nd floor). With his cello made of steel, sounding fossils from ethnological collections and found objects from the surrounding area, situation-related sound collages are created.

The OSTRALE Biennale has an excellent international network and is currently the third-largest temporary exhibition of contemporary art in Germany with over 300 works of art by around 180 artists from over 34 nations. It is not a sales exhibition per se, which gives it the freedom to discuss socially relevant topics away from market developments. The guiding principles of the OSTRALE, such as peaceful coexistence, acceptance of the stranger/unknown, respectful interaction, religious diversity and internationality are reflected in the exhibitions. The team of the OSTRALE Centre for Contemporary Arts has already organized several large-scale events contributing to the contemporary art programmes of European Capitals of Culture, such as 2010 in Pécs, 2016 in Wrocław and 2018 in Valletta/Malta. In the European Capital of Culture 2020 Rijeka/Croatia, the OSTRALE will also contribute by shaping parts of the programme.
